(VI) the National Emergency by Reason of Certain Terrorist Attacks, which began on September 11, 2001; and

(VII) any future national emergency declared in accordance with federal law.

Instructions for Completing the Application.

- A1-A3 Self-explanatory
- A4 Persons who are in default on a loan made or guaranteed by the federal government or State of Texas may not use the exemption. If you answer “yes” to this question, you cannot use the exemption. Your institution will verify your response to this question.
- A5 To use the exemption, your federal veterans’ education benefits cannot exceed the potential value of your Hazlewood exemption (tuition and fees other than property deposit and student service fees). To prove you meet this requirement you must provide your institution a copy of a letter from the VA Education Center in Muskogee, Oklahoma, indicating your current status with regard to federal veterans’ education benefits. Their phone number is 1-888-442-4551.
- A6 If you have served any active duty since your discharge, you may be eligible for additional federal benefits. Therefore, we ask that you provide your institution a veteran’s benefits letter that is dated no more than 3 months prior to the start of the term in which you wish to use the exemption.
- A7 You must have been a citizen of the United States at the time you entered the service in order to qualify for this exemption. If you do not meet this requirement, you are not eligible for the exemption. There is no need for you to complete the application process.
- A8 For persons to qualify for the exemption they must have been residents of Texas at the time they entered the service. If you do not meet this requirement, you are not eligible for the exemption. There is no need for you to complete the application process.
- Part B A veteran was a Texas resident for higher education purposes if he or she graduated from a Texas high school or received a GED in Texas having lived in the state for the 36 months leading up to graduation or the receipt of a GED and he or she also lived in Texas the 12 months prior to enlistment. The 12 month period may overlap the 36-month period leading up to graduation or receipt of GED.
- Part C Residency of a minor or dependent who did not meet the requirements outlined in Part B is based on the residency of the parent or legal guardian who claimed him/her as a dependent for federal income tax purposes. Residency of an independent, self-supporting person is based on his/her own circumstances. Answers to C impact which parts of the application will need to be completed to determine your residency classification when you entered the service.
- D1-D3 These questions should only be answered by individuals who do not meet the requirements outlined in Part B and who were independent, self-supporting when they entered the service and who filed their own federal income tax at that time as an independent tax payer.

E1-E7 These questions should only be answered by individuals who do not meet the requirements outlined in Part B and were claimed as dependents by a parent or legal guardian at the time they entered the service.

Part F This section is provided for you to add comments if you believe there is additional information the school should have to determine your residency at the time you entered the service.

Part G This section must be read and signed by all individuals applying for an exemption.

Documents to Submit.

To apply for an Exemption, you must submit the following documents to your institution:

1. The Hazlewood Exemption Application for Veterans who have Never Used the Exemption (HE-V)
2. DD214 – for use in verifying your place of entry, character of service, length of service, and dates of service. Make sure the copy you provide your institution includes all this information.
